THE ELECTION.

We wish with all the emphasis is we can command to warn our friends throughout the State against overconfidence and inactivity between this time and November 4th. The State-wide Amendment is to be voted on, and State officers are to be elected, both of which are of vital importance to the well being of the state.

We may be sure the liquor interests are not asleep. They are not upon the housetops, proclaiming their plans to the public; they are using the gum-shoe method, knowing that their only hope is to catch the temperance people napping. Various things that have been reported to us are like so many straws, showing the direction of the wind. Certain things that have found their way into the papers could have come from no other headquarters. Let no one think for a moment that the liquor interests have given up and retired from the field.

It is well known that the Central Methodist is not in the politics. We do not take sides in any party affair. We urgently advise our friends, however, never to lose sight of moral issues in casting a vote. And never take chances when one man is known to be straight, and the other because of past record is doubtful. The triumph of this or that party is a matter of small consequence, but the triumph or defeat of a moral issue is of greatest import. In the present instance, if it openly charged by one of the Louisville dailies, and so far as we are informed it is not denied, that the liquor interests of this city are lining up behind one of the candidates for Governor. If this be true, it is sufficient reason for all temperance advocates to go the other way.

In the state wide contest it is not sufficient that the friends of the measure go to the polls and vote on election day; they must be busy between this time and then remove misunderstandings, stirring up the lukewarm and seeing that the indifferent are aroused. If all do their duty, the amendment will carry by an overwhelming majority. The only danger of its failing is over-confidence and inactivity on the part of its friends.—Ex.

Finishing up what I started about one year ago I had announced in this paper that I will sell my stock of merchandise to quit business and succeeded but could not dispose of my town property but recently I dispo-ed of my property mentioned, so I am now ready to dispose of my entire stock of merchandise which I bought at the low market prices. And now this complete stock of merchandise consisting of Men's and Ladies' ready-to-wear, Shoes, Dry Goods and Groceries. Must go, and go at once regardless of prices and costs.

So I am going to start a sale SATURDAY, Oct. 25th, a sale that is the biggest that has ever been in Webster county or any other county in the state, and this great sale will go on until the entire stock is sold out.
If you want to make your dollars go as far as they did in the olden times, attend this great selling out sale.

We can not possibly quote prices as this is too enormous undertaking.
In fact at the present high market prices ours would sound unbelievable.
We invite one and all to compare our Prices with any other Store Prices or mailorder catalogue. Bring your catalogue with you so you can be convinced yourself. We are right with the statement made above. Thousands of dollars of Winter Goods await you at this great sale.

How Mat Cohen Spends Your Money

Facts for the Taxpayers of Kentucky

Mat S. Cohen, Commissioner of Agriculture and Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, employs more people in his department and spends more money than any other three combined departments of the State government. It is very important to the taxpayers, especially the farmers, how this money is spent.

In three years, Cohen's personal traveling expenses, which the taxpayers pay, have piled up to a total of $4,103.93, an average of $1,367.64 per year. In 1917 he charged the taxpayers $3.00 per day for ten days for attending the State Fair in addition to rooming and a hotel and taxicab bill of more than $100.00. Does anybody pay you to visit the State Fair?

Vouchers on file in the Auditor's office at Frankfort show what Cohen has been doing with your money. Below are a few samples of the extravagance of this man Cohen who, four years ago, solemnly promised you taxpayers to spend your money carefully and economically.

COHEN CHARGES YOU EXTRA FOR DOING HIS JOB

The trouble Cohen, who is paid to office he got the state legislature to raise his salary, but the legal department of the state would not have it. As Commissioner of Agriculture, Cohen is a member of all the boards in his department and his duty is to attend their meetings, transmit as a part of the work for which his taxpayers pay him a salary. But Cohen charged you from $7.00 to $10.00 a day for attending meetings of various boards. The total you paid him for this was $820.00 for 83 days, an average of $7.44 per day. Does anybody pay you for attending "How" at our call?

Cohen was paid $100.00 from the order of the Veterinary Examiners Board and it was charged to the Veterinary Examiners Board. The Attorney General ruled the claim was illegal.

Certain clerks in Cohen's department draw money in addition to their salaries. One was paid $30.00 a month for attending four meetings of the Live Stock Sanitary Board. She draws a regular salary of $2,100.00 a year which you taxpayers pay. Call her down!

Another clerk pays a salary of $1,200.00 a year and in addition she is paid an extra $100.00 as clerk of the State Board of Veterinary Examiners. Pigeon post.

WHAT'S IN THE STATE FAIR BOOKS?

On Oct. 6, the Republican State Campaign Committee asked the privilege of having the State Fair Books examined by certain public accountants. Cohen at first consented, but later denied the privilege. When threatened with a law suit, he said he would submit the request to a meeting of the State Board of Agriculture, Oct. 25, a few days before the election.

The books of the State Fair belong to the taxpayers who contribute huge sums of money each year to keep it going.

Among other things in these books are vouchers showing Mat Cohen's personal expense account.
Why does Cohen object to an immediate examination of these books?

A man's life — among men!

Reel them off—"Rio," Gibraltar, Ceylon, Yokohama—all the great ports of the world—are they only places on the map to you—or are they ports where you've gone sailing in from the high seas with every eye along the shore turned admiringly on your big ship—your ship! Every ocean has a United States ship sailing for some port worth seeing.

If you've any call in you for a full life—join, and color all your years ahead with memories of things worth seeing—with knowledge worth having—with an inhaustible fund of sea tales and adventures picked up ashore and afloat that will make you a welcome man in any company.

Work?—sure, and a man's work it is, among men.
Play?—well, rather, with a bunch of men who know how to play.
These comrades of yours carry in their ears the sounds of great world cities, of booming guns, of swashing seas—sounds you will share with them and that will never die away.

And when you come home, you'll face life ashore with level eyes—for Uncle Sam trains in self-reliance as well as self-respect.
The Navy builds straight men—no mollycoddles.

Ballet for two years. Excellent opportunities for advancement.
Four weeks holidays with pay each year. Show leave to see inland sights at ports visited. Men always learning. Good food and first uniform outfit free. Pay begins the day you enlist. One full information from your nearest recruiting station. If you do not know where the nearest recruiting station is, ask your Postmaster. He knows.
